meet.js Summit 2022

The meet.js Summit is an annual conference of the JavaScript community in Poland. It is an event that gathers over 500 web development professionals, front-end and back-end software engineers interested in modern JavaScript ecosystem and web technologies.

This year's meet.js Summit will take place on September 16, 2022, in Poznan Congress Center
<https://poznancongresscenter.pl/>

what is meet.js?

Our community has been hosting local events for web developers since 2011 – meetups and workshops in the major business hubs in the country.

Starting in 2012 we've been organizing a nationwide conference to gather community members from all around Poland. Now we're coming back after the pandemic.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of meet.js Summit.

All proceeds from the conference go to charity.
This time we are partnering with:
